

FABIO ANGELINI, ECTA Council member and Vice-Chair of the Copyright Committee, Bugnion S.p.A., IT

Fabio Angelini holds a Master of Laws (LL.M) from Boalt Hall School of Law, University of California at Berkeley, a Master in European Law, Summa cum laude in 1989 from the European Studies Institute "Alcide De Gasperi", in Rome and a JD, Summa cum laude from the University of Rome "La Sapienza".

Fabio is an attorney with Bugnion S.p.A, Rome Italy, and counsels U.S., Italian and international clients in all aspects of trade mark and design law, as well as conducting searches and filing applications, oppositions and appeals and developing implementing and executing strategies in prosecution and enforcement of trade mark portfolios, including litigation, contract drafting and advising in patent and licensing matters. Prior to returning to private practice he was a Senior Attorney at Intel Corporation, Santa Clara, CA. He is admitted to the New York State Bar and the Italian Bar, and is member of the ECTA Council, and Vice Chair of the Copyright Committee. Fabio is also member of INTA and its Legislation Analysis Committee, and member of Marques Design Team.

Fabio is an active speaker and Chair of session at IP conferences: among some of his latest engagements, Speaker at the 2017 APPI Baltic Conference and Speaker at the 2016 ECTA Annual Meeting, the 2014 Hong Kong INTA Meeting, the 2014 OHIM Mediation Conference, the 2013 OHIM Design Conference and his articles have been published in IP magazines worldwide.