

DEBORAH BRINCAT, Procter & Gamble, FR

Deborah Brincat has been working within the Trademark Team at P&G in France for 28 years, after graduating from King's College London University. Her responsibilities cover global renewals, corporate restructuring, pre- and post-Closing A&D work, team management and work processes, outsourcing of administrative work to a provider, database management, outside counsel relationships and special projects such as re-instatements, new mass filings etc. As well as being a member of CITMA, she is very involved with other associations i.e. Chair of INTA's Trademark Administrators' Committee and represents AIM and BUSINESSEUROPE at the Liaison Meetings held between the EUIPO and the national offices. When not doing this, she is out salsa dancing or riding her motorbike.