

DR. THOMAS HUBER, Attorney at Law, Junior Partner, Müller Schupfner & Partner, DE

Thomas Huber studied law at the Ludwig-Maximilians-University of Munich, Germany. In 2006 he was admitted to the bar. He received his Ph.D. from the University of Regensburg, Germany in 2015, with a thesis on the subject “Community Trademark and Community Design – A Study on the Basics, Overlap, Infringement and Procedural Systems“ (published in 2015).

At the beginning of his professional career Thomas was working for several years at a Munich based IP boutique renowned in particular for its litigation practice. Thomas is now Junior Partner at the law firm Müller Schupfner & Partner, a full-service IP boutique which consists of attorneys at law as well as patent attorneys with offices in Munich and Hamburg, Germany.

For over twelve years now Thomas’ professional practice has focused on IP litigation and enforcement against infringements and counterfeits. He has gained special experience in multinational and cross-border trademark and design litigation cases.

Thomas has successfully handled cases before all major German IP infringement courts. His special interest lies with patent, trademark and design law. Thomas frequently gives lectures and publishes articles on various related topics.
