

Dr. András Jókúti, Director-General for Legal Affairs, Hungarian Intellectual Property Office, HU

András Jókúti is the Director-General for Legal Affairs at the Hungarian Intellectual Property Office since the beginning of 2017. In the 8 years before that, he held various leadership positions in the legal branch of the same Office. Between 2003 and 2008, he was in charge of intellectual property matters in different ministries of the Hungarian administration. In the academic year 2014/2015, he attended The George Washington University Law School as a Fulbright scholar and acquired his LL.M. in Intellectual Property. Besides his legal career, he is an accomplished photographer.