

CAROLIN KIND, ECTA Secretary General, Attorney at Law, Greyhills Rechtsanwälte, DE

Carolin studied law at the Universität Passau, Germany, and the Universidade de Santiago de Compostela, Spain. She also holds an LL.M. degree from the University of Cape Town, South Africa.

Carolin was admitted to the German bar in 2002. She started her professional career as Associate at Linklaters and practices IP law since then. In 2006 she became Partner at Greyhills. Carolin is specialized in trademark law and advises national and international clients.

She is ECTA Member since 2002 and Member of other professional associations such as INTA. In 2002 she also joined the ECTA Harmonization Committee. In 2006 she became Vice Chair and 2012 Chair of the Harmonization Committee. Carolin is a regular speaker/moderator at ECTA meetings and conferences.

She speaks German, English, French, Spanish and Italian.