

CONSTANTIN KLETZER, Member of the ECTA Internet Committee, Geistwert Attorneys-at-Law, AT

Constantin Kletzer is practising in IP for nearly 20 years. He started his career in the IP department of an international full-service law firm, specializing in patent and trademark litigation. Soon he moved to a local Austria full services firm, where he spearheaded the IP work and build up a leading IP department in patent litigation, trademark prosecution and litigation, unfair competition, and copyright/licensing matters. In 2014 he started the law firm GEISTWERT with four like-minded colleagues, which is boutique firm dedicated to IP and IT matter, which has become a top-notch law-firm in Austria in these areas.

Constantin has led several international patent cases in the pharmaceutical field, major trademark and copyright cases in Austria.

He is a proud member of ECTA and active in its Internet Committee.