

STEPHANIE LEGRAND, Secretary, ECTA Design Committee, Legrand Lesage-Catel Gaultier, FR

Lawyer at the Paris Bar since 1990, Stéphanie Legrand has been involved in Intellectual Property for the past 25 years. She advises, assists and represents both French and international clients in the fields of copyright, designs, trademarks and domain names, patents, as well as unfair competition, new technologies and e-reputation. Stéphanie Legrand litigates before national civil and criminal courts, as well as before the courts of the European Union. She recently participated in articles and/or lectures on “fashion and parody”, “the balance between copyright and freedom of expression” and “blockchain, IP and fashion”.