

KAREL SINDELKA, ECTA Council Member, Sindelka Lachmannova, CZ

Karel Šindelka is one of the co-founding partners of the IP boutique law firm Šindelka & Lachmannova, with offices in Prague in the Czech Republic.

Karel Šindelka is a graduate of the Faculty of Law of Masaryk University in Brno, Czech Republic, where he obtained a degree in law in 1998. Karel Šindelka qualified as an attorney-at-law in 2001.

Before opening his own law firm Karel was for 17 years an associate and later partner in another IP law firm based in Prague, Czech Republic.

In his practice Karel focuses on soft IP, in particular trademarks, designs, copyrights and unfair competition law. Within his law firm Karel manages anti-counterfeiting activities of major world fashion brands in the Czech Republic and is responsible for Internet-related issues including domain name matters.

Karel is a panellist of the Czech Arbitration Court („CAC“) for .cz domain names and has lectured at various IP seminars in the Czech Republic.

He is a member of ECTA from 2007, is a long-term member of the ECTA Internet Committee, member of the EU IPO link Committee and the ECTA Council member.