

MIRANDA THEODORIDOU, ECTA Council member, Attorney-at-Law, Partner, Dr. Helen G. Papaconstantinou and Partners, GR

Miranda Theodoridou graduated from the University of Athens with a law degree and holds a Master's Degree in Business Administration (MBA) by the University of Derby. She is admitted to practice before the Supreme Court and the Council of State.

Miranda is one of the founding partners of the law firm Dr. Helen G. Papaconstantinou and Partners, with more than 35 years' extensive experience in handling a broad spectrum of IP issues, including consultation for and legal representation of major multinational companies, market leaders and small local businesses in administrative proceedings and courts of all instances. She has handled numerous cases focusing on trademark and domain name matters.

She is a European patent attorney and a Council Member of the European Communities Trademark Association, as well as member of numerous other professional organisations, including the International Association for the Protection of Intellectual Property (AIPPI), the Institute of Professional Representatives before the European Patent Office (EPI) and the International Trademark Association (INTA).

Miranda makes significant contributions through various associations and prestigious IP resources.