

STAMATIA TSIROZI, LL.M., Brand Enforcement Attorney Europe, Red Bull GmbH, AT

Ms. Tsirozi is the in-house Brand Enforcement Attorney at Red Bull GmbH (Austria) responsible for the drafting of the company's trademark license agreements as well as for providing legal advice with respect to trademark related clauses in every type of business agreement. She is also responsible for counterfeit matters, trademark opposition, trademark cancellation matters and unfair competition matters relating to specific EU countries.

Before she joined Red Bull in 2017, she worked for two years for the IP law firm Bardehle Pagenberg Partnerschaft mbB in Munich (Germany) and before this, she worked for one year for the Board of Appeal at the European Union Intellectual Property Office (EUIPO) in Alicante (Spain).

She has been admitted as an Attorney with the Greek Lawyers' association since 2015.

She studied law at the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki (Greece) and completed an Erasmus semester at the University of Cologne (Germany). Then she earned an LL.M. in International Studies in Intellectual Property Law at the Technical University of Dresden (Germany) and University of Exeter (United Kingdom).

Ms. Tsirozi speaks Greek, English, German and Spanish.